

Reindeer

10 Seater Hexagonal Barbecue House

The 'Reindeer' Barbecue House is the perfect addition to your garden.

Combining a Summer House and Barbecue in one building, it allows year round entertainment without all the drawbacks of trying to arrange a day around our British Summer!

This barbecue house is designed to seat 10 people. A Leisure Buildings barbecue house is provided in a log construction with all the fixings, latches, hinges and handles required for assembly, the instructions for self-builders are also supplied. Leisure Buildings can also arrange to have your Barbecue House assembled on site.

In addition we supply a wide range of accessories to complement your Barbecue House.

The granite top table is included as standard, together with a choice of available grill options.
